THE NEW YORK YACHT GLUB THROWS OFEN ITS DOORS FOR A MAY DAY RECEPTION TO WOMEN.

The house was thronged with maids and matrons whose names are familiar in social and yachting circles. Cut flowers, potted plants and bright flags and bunting combined to form profuse decorations. The figures in the model room and the trophies won for the club by members had the greatest interest for the visitors. Several distinguished veterans of the United States Navy aided the Club Committee in entertaining the women.
